“ We hate that you have lost Brad, gone far too soon. Brad was always warm and kind to us and a loving soul. We hope that you will find strength, self-care, and nurturing in this grieving journey. The love for Brad, his light, his energy, let his memory never fade and may you find healing and strength.—Love, The Blunkosky Family

“ This sweet young man was a long time friend to my daughter (Tina). On every occasion when I would take her to meet up with him and Steven to go to the movies or whatever they were going to do, he always had the sweetest hug to give me. He was loving, genuine, respectful, and fun. He had a cute little grin and just loved to playfully tease her about things. Brad always seemed to have a sparkle in his eyes and was just always ready to have good time. I can't imagine the grief that all of his family is feeling and wish there was something that I could say or do to alleviate the grief. All I can do is tell you that Brad was an absolute joy to me and that I will carry the fondest memories of him in my heart. I hope that this message to his family will bring a smile to their faces and that they know there are others that also loved Brad and will miss him dearly. May God bless all of you and surround you with love and comfort.
