“ What a beautiful warning felt tribute to a wonderful loving caring man that I only got to know for a short time. Even though it was a short time you could see and feel the love he had when he was surrounded by his family. He will truly be missed but will live forever with in your heart . “ I remember our days at Oaklawn Bowl in Hopewell. Not only did he build the building, he and his family were patrons. I had the pleasure of many long conversations and as a competitor. He always expressed pride in the bowling accomplishments of his grandson and as a big supporter of the sport of bowling. He wasn't to bad talking about investments and real estate for hours on end. A self diagnosed medical researcher, and a man of many talents. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him. Rest in peace Cecil.

“ What a beautiful tribute to your husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. The first time I saw Mr. Perrin was at a Halloween party hosted in Birchett Estates in the lot in front of Mr. Forbe's house. There were games for children and adults alike and Mr Perrin put on a baby bonnet and drank from a baby bottle and won that game. I was only ten or eleven but I was in awe that an adult would do that so that others could laugh, thank you Mr. Perrin, RIP. With condolences to his family, Denise Pugh Jernigan and Roy B. Pugh

“ Cecil was like a grandfather to my grandchildren who loved to go over to his house to see him and partake of the cookies and milk he always had waiting for them. He treated me like a sister. He helped me set up my business. He was always there for advice on anything I needed. He and my husband were very best friends who traveled together and bonded like brothers. He and Angela were fantastic dancers and such a pleasure just to watch. He married into the best family in Hopewell, and treated me and all the Straccioni girls like we were all his sisters. He was good to everybody. This world is a much better place for all the wonderful footsteps he left in it. I have frequently been mistaken as one of the Stracconi girls and was always flattered when that happened. I thank God for sending Cecil to Angela and the whole family who loved him like a brother and son. Dino always wanted a son and then he had one in Cecil. I know he is in heaven now with Dick, my husband, and sharing all the memories of the great times they had together. One of the funniest was when they drove to California with Angela, Mary and Hilda to see Cecil's family, then, the girls wanted to come home, so they flew back and left their luggage in the trunk. Cecil and Dick wanted to go into Mexico so they did, but when they got to the border the guards looked at the license plate and saw it was from Virginia, so he asked Cecil where he was from and Cecil said, California, then he asked Dick and he said Rhode Island so the guard said, get out of the car and open the trunk. The guard then began opening the suitcases full of women's clothes and underwear. Dick was so embarrassed because the looks the guard gave them said exactly what he was thinking. When they had Lakewood Supper Club Dick would tend bar sometimes when they were shorthanded and he and Cecil would shoot the breeze for hours. I could go on and on, but I know you are bored by now so I will stop. May God welcome Cecil into His Kingdom and give him the reward he has definitely earned for a life very well lived. May God Fill Angela's mind and heart with all the great memories of a marriage full of love and joy. May God comfort all who are mourning at the loss of one very special man who was a gift to so many. Our family loves you Cecil and appreciates all you have done for us and all the happy memories you left with us. May you rest in peace.

Your friend,

Janet Basile Beaudet
