“ Martha I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember the times he came to pick you up from work and stop by my room and ask where you were. That was the time we would share a joke or two at your expense. One thing for sure,,Chris really loved you. God bless you and the girls.

“ Martha, LB & Taylor,

Please know that our heartfelt sympathies are with yall in your time of loss. Chris was one of the finest men we have known. His love for Jesus and his family was so evident whenever we saw him. He is now sitting with our Lord and Savior, talking to Him and loving being with Him, no pain and singing with the angels. May your sweet memories and the loving arms of Jesus give you some comfort.

“ Chris helped me understand how to open the plastic produce bags at Walmart many years ago, and through Taylor and Martha, and my occasional encounters with Chris, I knew him to be a gentle soul and good man. Taylor, I lost my father when I was young, and he has been walking beside me every day since his passing. Your father will always be beside you, and yes, the memories will cause tears to well up in your eyes even in your old age. God bless Chris and his family. Bruce Hansen “ Sending lots of love and prayers to the Lee family during this difficult time. I worked with Chris for 3 1/2 years and it was a absolute pleasure. I could always count on him to lift my spirits just by his presents. He will be missed tremendously.

“ Chris was a coworker of mines and I am so grateful to have had him in my life. I think that God put people in your life for a reason and the Lee family was in mines. They maded you feel like you were part of there's. I would bring food in and we would sit in the break room and have lunch and he would talk about the Lord in away that would keep you wanting to hear more. God and his family was so important to him especially Martha. He had the faith like Job and the will of David. He always said there is nothing that God couldn't do. He was a true man of God. I thank Jesus for all the time I had with him and his family. Please be strong in the Lord and we will all see him again.

“ Lena and I wish to express our deepest sympathy to Martha, Laura Beth and Colin, Taylor, and all of Chris Lee’s family. I have certainly enjoyed the opportunity to sing with Chris in the Swift Creek Baptist Church choir, as well as the time we served together as deacons. One could not have known Chris without knowing how much he truly loved his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! I’m sure that his faith and testimony has touched many lives.

I have been honored and humbled to have served as deacon to Chris and his family during the last months of Chris’ earthly journey, and to be present at his home-going. What a testimony! What a legacy! I’m looking forward to seeing my friend again.

Maybe we can again sing God’s praises together!

“ My deepest condolences to Martha and the family. Chris was the most good and decent person I've ever known. In 40+ years of friendship, I never heard him say an unkind word about anybody. He was always an inspiration to me, and lived in such a way that everyone could see Jesus' love through his words and actions. I will deeply miss my friend!

“ My condolences to the family. Chris will no doubt be surely missed. As a church goer no doubt Chris found comfort in the promise recorded at 1 Thess 4:14 May that promise prove to be a source of comfort to all who mourn his loss.

“ I'm saddened to hear of the passing of Chris Lee. He was a special person, and was very much loved by his family. Chris loved God, and love his savior Jesus. He could always give the right answer, and tell you the righteous action to take in a situation. He was a great role model, and he never lost faith in God in his toughest moments. The man Chris was is what every man should aspire to be. He's in a much better place now, free from the cancer and the pains of this world. He looked forward to being with our blessed savior who sits on high. Now, he gets the opportunity to enjoy that for eternity. Prayers for his family and loved ones who are hurting tonight. Thank you for the opportunity to get to know Chris.
