July 16, 1939 - June 11, 2022

Harvey Clinton Spain, 82, of Prince George County, VA, passed away on June 11, 2022. He was born in Hopewell, but was raised and resided in Prince George County all of his life. He is the late son of Raymond Albert and Pearl F. Spain. He was a '57 graduate of Prince George High School and attended Smithdeal-Massey Business College. Harvey was employed for over 40 years at Hercules Inc. in Hopewell. In his early years, he was a member of Rosewood Presbyterian Church and later served at Oakland Baptist Church, and finally at The Heights Baptist Church in Colonial Heights. He spent some of his retirement years serving with the Colonial Heights Food Bank, Prince George Crime Solvers, Superkids program, and the Prince George Emergency Crew Executive Board. He had a love of saltwater fishing and spent many retired days with his buddies fishing in the Outer Banks or out in the Chesapeake Bay. His true passion in life was the love he showed for his family, and we shall never forget his unwavering support and generosity. There is no doubt that in his heart he truly loved and served our Lord and Savior.
