For my Honey and our Daddy:

We can't accept it, regardless of how hard we try

Because we're not ready to say goodbye

Despite the fact of knowing that where one life ends a new one begins

Death is one of those mysteries in life that we will never understand

The void in our hearts left by your passing is something that will never be filled.

However, it brings us great comfort knowing that your life's journey was fulfilled

You may be gone in a physical sense, but you will always be with us

Thank you God for all of us precious memories.

God has called another angel, our angel, back home, only this time he has called the best of the best

We love you and We miss you but most importantly, now you can enjoy your peaceful rest!

“ I loved Uncle Bubba's lighthearted nature. He liked to joke with you and always had a big smile. Our families had so many fun times together. We would have cookouts, go roller skating, sledding or just hang out together. I cherish these memories and feel blessed to have Uncle Bubba as my uncle. Love and prayers to the family. Love you all. “ "Uncle Bubba" was always very kind to me from the time of being a very small child, all the way up until the last time I saw him at his home in 1992 while visiting my cousins Richie & Cheryl. I was always very grateful that he let me into his home many times to spend the night with my cousins over the years while growing up. The kindness & good heartedness nature of all of his children, my cousins (Debbie, Tony, Richie & Cheryl) proves that he was a great father & a very hard worker. I have not seen my Uncle Bubba in 30 years but he was thought about often & will never be forgotten.

“ Oh my daddy! Daddy you are the first man I ever loved so all others had very big shoes to fill! I will always treasure working with you on those roofs, spreading that tar in my overalls right beside you! Getting up at 3 am to go stand in line with me for a Christmas present for Chuck drinking hot chocolate from a gas station. Driving across the United States to rescue me from bad decisions, lol. Daddy, I don't ever remember you having a cross word to say about anyone at any time of my life. You are the sweetest, kindest man and God made you just for mommy and for us kids. I was lucky enough to have you walk me down the aisle twice and I will treasure that forever. You loved with your whole heart and you would not hesitate to drop everything for us kids. You never said NO..... you told us to go ask your mother! You were a sneaky one! Thank you for loving me daddy, I sure do love you!

“ All of my best memories were with my amazing Papa! From holidays, birthdays, and any big celebrations this man was there!! From being chased around as kids with his needles that he checked his sugar with, to him taking his teeth out and trying to bite us like a vampire! 🦋 My Papa is the definition of a Great Man! He always made sure that we all felt every ounce of love that he had and always made sure that we knew no matter what we could come to him! I will always cherish every second I got to spend with him, I hate that Covid took away the last year of time with him, but I am glad that I got to see him a few times before he went home to Heaven! Heaven gained the best angel and I'm lucky to have him watching over me! Papa, know that we will all look after each other the way you would want us too, we loved you to life and will miss you every day that goes by! Thank you for being the best Papa and know that I will always hold you in my heart and carry you everywhere I go! I'm glad that Kayden got to meet you even tho it was only for a short time of his life, he knows that he had the best Great Papa and that you loved him and he loved you sooooo much!!

Rest in Paradise until we meet again!!
