“ Thoughts and prayers to the family and friends of this truly wonderful man! He never met a stranger! When he was on his route and saw the dogs out he would take a few seconds and give the dogs a little treat before jumping back on his truck.

“ Toad was of the most caring and happiest person I have ever meant. His laughter will always be a cherished memory. He will truly be missed. He loved life and didn't expect too much and was content with life and the joys of he's family. Prayers for his family and friends.
