“ I served on the Board of Directors of the Dinwiddie County Water Authority while Rob was our Executive Director. Rob did a good job for the authority and I enjoyed my association with him. I am so sorry to hear of his death.

“ I am sincerely saddened to hear of Robbie's passing. Although we lost touch through the years, Robbie was among the first memories I have of being childhood friends in the neighborhood. Others include James Ruffa, Shelly Newton, Lee Gwaltney, Gary Rowlett and Penny Dudley. We all attended the old A.P. Hill Elementary School. Robbie was a quiet and reserved sort of guy, but he could always be counted on for a helping hand and a good laugh. I have fond memories of helping build soap box derby type racers and helping Robbie deliver newspapers from time to time. Robbie was a good friend and I'm pretty sure he stayed that way throughout his life. He will definitely be missed. Rest in peace Robbie.
